SPEAKERS

DAMIAN GODDARD

Damian Goddard is a 20+ year veteran of television and radio broadcasting.

Goddard has spent much of his career covering sports for Rogers

Sportsnet, Leafs TV, Raptors NBA TV, The Score, and the CBC.

Raised Catholic and devoted to his faith, Goddard made international news headlines in May of 2011. It wasn't for anything he said on the TV studio set, but for a tweet he delivered from his home computer. The tweet upheld his belief in the "traditional and TRUE meaning of marriage". The following day, Goddard was fired from Rogers Sportsnet.

MARK MOSTERT

Mark Mostert has 30+ years experience on disability-related issues. He is best known for his award-winning site, Useless Eaters, which describes the historical context of attitudes toward people with disabilities in Germany and how this context produced mass murder of people with disabilities prior to and during the early years of World War II.

STEPHANIE GRAY

Stephanie is an international presenter who began speaking at the age of 18 and some 2 years later co-founded the Canadian Centre for Bio-ethical Reform. She has given presentations across North America as well as in the United Kingdom, Latvia, and Costa Rica. She has spoken at many post-secondary institutions, high schools, churches of various denominations, seminaries, and pro-life organizations. Stephanie has debated several abortion advocates and has had countless media interviews.

Stephanie is Faculty at the Blackstone Legal Fellowship and is author of A Physician's Guide to Discussing Abortion.

JAKKI JEFFS

Since 1989 Jakki Jeffs has been the Executive Director of Alliance for Life Ontario, the provincial coordinating office for 65 educational pro-life organizations.

Jakki works tirelessly promoting protection and respect for all human life through educational means.
